5.77.010 Restaurant defined.

“Restaurant” means any place where food is prepared or served for sale or sold for human consumption on or off the premises.

5.77.020 License—Required.

It is unlawful to operate or be engaged in the operations of a restaurant in the city without first obtaining a license as required in this chapter.

5.77.030 License—Fee.

The annual license fee for a restaurant shall be as specified on the fee schedule adopted pursuant to section 5.06.050.

5.77.040 Applications—Referral to health department.

All applications for a license under this chapter shall be referred to the health department for investigation and recommendation in accordance with the health ordinances of the city.

5.77.050 License—Revocation conditions.

The license granted by this chapter may be revoked by the manager at any time upon notice and hearing, for violation of any ordinance of the city or law of the state of Utah.

5.77.060 Compliance with health ordinances required.

It is unlawful for any person to operate or be engaged in the operations of a restaurant in the city without complying strictly with the health ordinances of the city.

5.77.070 Employees circulating among guests—Restrictions.

It is unlawful for any person licensed under this chapter to permit any employee to circulate among the patrons or guests of such place of business except to take or serve orders, or to permit any employee to sit down at any table, counter or other place in such place of business with any patron or guest. It is unlawful for any employee of such place of business to circulate among the patrons or guests, or for any employee to sit down at any table, counter or any other place in such place of business with any patron or guest.

5.77.080 Entertainment—Hours when restricted.

It is unlawful for the keeper, manager or person in charge of any restaurant to permit any singing, dancing, playing of musical instruments or any other form of amusement or entertainment to be carried on in such restaurant or public dining room, or in any room, booth or other place connected therewith on or after one a.m. and before eight a.m. of the same day.

5.77.090 Offensive behavior prohibited.

A. It is unlawful for the keeper, manager or the person in charge of any restaurant to permit any person to conduct himself or herself, by word or act therein, or in any room, booth or other place connected therewith, in such manner as to constitute disturbing the peace, disorderly conduct, or a public nuisance under this code.

B. It is unlawful to permit any dancer, entertainer or other person to appear in or on such place of business in a state of nudity as defined in chapter 5.82.
